Item Locations

There are different item locations with different main subjects within both library buildings. At the City Center location you can find literature on humanities, social sciences, economics, and architecture, and at the Vaihingen location you can find literature on science, technology, and sports.

Open shelves

- Self-service
- Sorted by subject and topic (the first letters of the shelfmark indicate the subject)
- Yellow and yellow-white shelfmark tags on the book spines
- Loan period: 1 month
- Renewal (10 days at the earliest before the expiry of the current loan period) 3 times by 1 month each, afterwards new checkout at the self-service terminals)
  -> requirement: the item has not been put on hold
- Request for pick-up at the other library location possible
  o Delivery on the following day, available from 1 p.m. at the latest
  o Exception on Friday -> delivery on Monday, available from 1 p.m. at the latest

!City Center
!Vaihingen

Open Stacks

- Only at the City Center location
- Self-service
- White shelfmark tags on the book spines
- Loan period: 1 month
- Renewal (10 days at the earliest before the expiry of the current loan period) 3 times by 1 month each, afterwards new checkout at the self-service terminals)
  -> requirement: the item has not been put on hold
- Request for pick-up at the Vaihingen location possible
  o Delivery on the following day, available from 1 p.m. at the latest
  o Exception on Friday -> delivery on Monday, available from 1 p.m. at the latest

!City Center
Reading Room (Reference Collection)

- Sorted by subject and topic (the first letters of the shelfmark indicate the subject)
- Red and red-white shelfmark tags on the book spines
- Only short-term loan possible (over night from 4 p.m. until noon on the following day or over the weekend until noon on Monday, checkout only during service hours at the circulation desks)
  - in case of delayed return: €3 overdue notice per item and day
- Reference books, loose-leaf collections, items in course reserve collections, and valuable literature etc. are excluded from the short-term loan

Reading Room Periodicals / Journals

- Sorted by subjects and alphabetically by journal title within the subject
- Yellow and red-white shelfmark tags on the book spines
- The last 10 years of journals can be found in the reading room and are non-borrowable
  - Exception: Journals published since 1900 are non-borrowable within following subjects:
    - City Center: Subject V: Linguistics and Literary Studies
- Older volumes of journals are located in the closed stacks and can be borrowed (Exception: Journals that are older than 100 years or not bound may only be used in the reading room)
Closed Stacks (Non-accessible area)

- Items always have to be requested via the catalog
- Request from the closed stacks:
  - for the respective library location:
    - before 3:30 p.m. -> items available within 20 minutes
    - after 3:30 p.m. -> items available from 10 a.m. on the following day
  - from the other library location:
    - delivery on the following day, available from 1 p.m. at the latest
    - Exception on Friday -> delivery on Monday, available from 1 p.m. at the latest
- White shelfmark tags on the book spines
- Loan period: 1 month
- Renewal (10 days at the earliest before the expiry of the current loan period) 3 times by 1 month each, afterwards new checkout at the self-service terminals)
  - requirement: the item has not been put on hold
- Items from the rare books collection in the closed stacks (items older than 100 years, plans, drawings and photographs from the Map and Plan Collection) may only be used in the reading room.

Course Reserve Collections

- Exam relevant literature and important items for courses which have been compiled at request of professors and lecturers
- In the respective reading room of both library locations you can find temporary and permanent course reserve collections
- Items are marked with colored dots on the book spines
- Non-borrowable

Have you got questions? The library team will gladly help you -> „Ask a Librarian“